(edition of the contract: ☐ paper ☐ electronic version ☐ not given)

If the PURCHASER does not intend to take out a loan to finance the purchase of the property, they must write the following in their own handwriting:
"I, the undersigned (first name and surname), declare that I am making this acquisition without recourse to any loan. I acknowledge that I have been informed that if I nevertheless take out a loan, I will not be able to take advantage of the condition precedent provided for in Book 3, Title 1, Chapter 3 of the French Consumer Code relating to property credit."
